

I am writing to demand that you not change the internet rules back to Title 1. The industry has proven by past actions that they need to be regulated and this is why, in response to Verizon's lawsuit, the rules were changed. Under Title 2, the internet companies are forced to comply with rules. Expecting them to do it voluntarily is like asking a mouse not to eat the cheese. Really! The public is aware and watching.